SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

An officer made a traffic stop on a vehicle occupied by a male driver. After inspecting the VIN the officer determined it did not match up. Further inspection of the vehicle revealed it had been VIN swapped and the vehicle was reported stolen last month. The male was arrested and booked for possession of a stolen vehicle. Officers also responded to a drive-by shooting that just occurred at a tire shop down town. Several shots were fired, but only one 9mm bullet was located wedged in the glass of a different business. The suspect was not located but the tire shop had video surveillance. Employees at the tire shop mentioned an altercation yesterday with a customer who was unhappy with the service and refused to pay for the repair that was done. During that altercation an employee saw the male with a handgun. The suspect has not been identified at this time, however, there was good video of the male holding the gun yesterday was captured and collected for evidence.
