SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Busy day. This morning an officer contacted a male and female in a parking lot of a motel. He recognized the male from prior contacts as being on probation for drug charges. A probation search was done and the male was found to have methamphetamine in his pocket. He was arrested and booked for felony possession charges due to his prior convictions. Several officers responded to a hit and run accident where the female driver veered off of the road and struck a male trimming trees with a tree trimming company. She collided into the house and then fled on foot and was quickly picked up by another vehicle that left the area. Luckily, the injuries to the tree trimmer were not life threatening. Follow-up is being done to identify the driver for felony hit and run charges. This afternoon an officer handled a mental health call where a female left messages to friends and family that she was going drive off of a cliff. She was determined to be in the Patterson area and then the bay area but had not been located yet.

1 Warrant Arrest

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers responded to a domestic disturbance where a male had been assaulted by his girlfriend. The female had left before police arrived and she was not located. It was determined that she had thrown a sharp metal tool at the male, hitting him on the arm and causing injury. The female is currently wanted for domestic battery. Officers also responded to security check a male who was passed out in the parking lot of an apartment complex. The male was contacted and determined to have two felony warrants from two different counties. He was arrested and booked into jail.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The shift was steady tonight, but not as busy as the prior night. Officers spent a large amount of time extra patrolling the downtown area and looking for impaired drivers. Graveyards was able to arrest 2 subjects for DWI. Additionally, one of our officers drove to Merced County to pick up a subject that was in custody and had a warrant from TPD. He was taken to the Stanislaus County Jail and booked on our warrant.
